

The image shows two large monitors at the front of a room, displaying a presentation in Japanese. The left monitor has a title "作業所の安全衛生管理の徹底" (Thoroughness of Safety and Health Management in the Workplace) and a sub-heading "安全衛生管理" (Safety and Health Management). It features an illustration of a worker and a manager, along with several photographs of industrial settings. The right monitor also displays the same title and includes a section titled "緊急時のある場所でのバックホウの使用" (Use of Backhoes in Emergency Situations), accompanied by an image of a backhoe loader. Both screens show detailed text and diagrams related to workplace safety protocols.
